A Guide On How To Get Started

THE CITY

ME, LEAD A LIFEGROUP?

At the City, LifeGroups are essential for our discipleship to be with Jesus, become like Jesus and do the works of Jesus in our city.

Simply put, a LifeGroup is a small group of people who get together to explore faith in community and encourage each other in the way of Jesus.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF A LIFEGROUP LEADER?

We believe that as long as someone aspires to have these three core attributes, he or she can lead a LifeGroup:

- Teachable - Carries a learning and humble posture.
- Available - Demonstrates willingness to participate and contribute.
- Faithful - Shows commitment to follow through on his or her responsibilities.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF A LIFEGROUP LEADER?

The three key roles of a LifeGroup leader are:

- Organising members for meetings and towards deepening relationships.
- Modelling a lifestyle of obedience and devotion.
- Facilitating environment for spiritual growth.

With the TAF core attributes, the leader will surely grow in Character, Competence and Consistency in serving as his or her LifeGroup. Enabling him or her to look after the group, grow as a good example, and promote healthy discipleship for the members.

WHAT IS THE COMMITMENT WITH THE GROUP?

When our LifeGroups gather, God's presence and God's Word is the mainstay of our time together.

Typically, our LifeGroups meet weekly or bi-weekly for LifeGroup meeting, when we encourage, eat, praise, study scripture, share, pray, or all of these!

Our homes are the focal points of LifeGroup meetings, where Christ's hospitality and ours converge. For our discussions, we track with sermon series as well as go through selected books for group study.

Beyond our meetings, we are big on doing life together, because we embody Christ's presence in our world wherever we go as the people of God on mission.

LifeGroups are where transformation happens best, where people experience Tangible Presence, Resilient Discipleship and Missional Community!

SUPPORT AND RESOURCES

As a church, we are committed to ensuring that everyone can belong, can invest in their own spiritual growth, and can partner with God and others for God's mission.

For this reason, our team of LifeGroup Leaders meet regularly for updates, mutual encouragement and accountability, which you will be a part of, too.

There will definitely be situations where you cannot and should not handle on your own. Expect it!

In such times, know that you can escalate the matter to the pastoral team for intervention, and where necessary, they will recommend other helps, e.g. professional counselling. Escalating a matter also makes it possible for our larger community to add strength to the care that your group is already giving to the persons concerned.

From time to time, we will provide additional resources, such as Inductive Bible Study for LifeGroups.
